may maintain an action or proceeding in the name of the town in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel compliance with or to restrain by injunction the violation of such local law. Said permit to operate may also be revoked by the Town Board for any violation or violations of this Local Law which continue for a period of 15 consecutive days or more. Any revocation hereunder shall be subject to a public hearing thereon at which the applicant shall have an opportunity to be heard.

SECTION 1715 RECYCLING LAW

Reference: LL #6-1989, SECTION 2.8, Penalties

Upon conviction, a violation of this Local Law shall be deemed an offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) for each and every such offense, or imprisonment for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days, or both. Each day's violation shall constitute a separate and additional violation. In addition to the above-provided penalties and punishment, the Town Board may also maintain an action or proceeding in the name of the town in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel compliance with or to restrain by injunction the violation of such local law.

SECTION 1716 ROAD PRESERVATION LAW

Reference LL #6-2012, Section 18, Violation of Local Law; Penalties Therefore

- A. Any person who violates any provision of this Local Law shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to penalties in a fine of not less than $1,000 and imprisonment up to one year.
- B. In addition to those penalties prescribed herein, any person who violates any provision of this Local Law shall be liable for a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $5,000 for each day or part thereof during which such violation continues. The civil penalties provided by this subsection shall be recoverable in an action instituted in the name of the Town.
- C. If the violation is of a continuing nature, each twenty-four hour period during which it occurs shall constitute an additional, separate and distinct offense.
- D. An action or proceeding may be instituted in the name of the Town, in a court of competent jurisdiction, to prevent, restrain, enjoin, correct, or abate any violation of, or to enforce any provision of this Local Law. In particular, but not by way of limitation, where there is a violation of this Local Law, an action or proceeding may be commenced in the name of the Town, in the Supreme Court or in any other court having the requisite jurisdiction, to obtain an order directing abatement of the condition in violation of such provisions. The Town may seek restitution for costs incurred by the Town in remedying each violation, including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees.

ZONING LOCAL LAW
TOWN OF KIRKWOOD

ARTICLE XVII
APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS

- E. Remedies not exclusive. No remedy or penalty specified in this section shall be the exclusive remedy or penalty available to address any violation described in this Local Law. Any remedy or penalty specified in this section may be pursued at any time, whether prior to, simultaneously with, or after the pursuit of any other remedy or penalty specified in this section.

SECTION 1717 SEWER CONNECTION ORDINANCE

Reference: Sewer Connection Ordinance, SECTION 18, Enforcement and Penalties

- A. Whenever it shall appear to the Town Engineer, after investigation, that any person has violated any provision of this law (other than a provision of Section 22), the Town Engineer shall give written notice to the alleged violator or violators setting forth the nature of the violation, and directing that the matters complained of be corrected within such reasonable time limit as may be set by the Town Engineer. Any such notice shall be served on the violator by personal service or by registered or certified mail sent to the last address of the violator known to the Town Engineer. Where the address is unknown, service may be made upon the owner of record of the property involved. If satisfactory action is not taken within the time allotted by the notice, the violator shall be subject to the penalty provisions set forth in subsection (b) below, in addition to any Town code enforcement procedures otherwise authorized by law.
- B. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this law (other than a provision of Section 22), or any order of the Town Engineer issued pursuant to subsection 1 above, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Each offense shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in the case of a continuing offense, each day's continuance thereof shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.
- C. Any person violating any of the provisions of this law shall, in addition, be liable to the Town for any expense, loss or damage occasioned to the Town by reason of such violations, and any expense incurred in correcting the violation.
- D. The Town Attorney, on his own initiative or at the request of the Town Engineer or Town Board, shall have the right to seek equitable relief in the name of the Town to restrain the violation of, or to compel compliance with, this law, or any order or determination issued thereunder by the Town Engineer.
- E. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, whenever the Town Engineer finds, after investigation, that any user is causing, engaging in or maintaining a condition or activity which in his judgment presents an imminent danger to the public health, safety or welfare, or to the environment, or is likely to result in irreversible or irreparable damage to the sanitary sewer system, and it therefore appears to be prejudicial to the public interest to delay action until notice and an opportunity for a hearing can be provided, the Town Engineer may, without prior hearing, order such user by notice, in writing wherever practicable or in such other form as in his judgment will reasonably notify such person whose practices are intended to be proscribed, to discontinue, abate or alleviate such condition or activity, and thereupon such person shall immediately discontinue, abate or alleviate such condition or activity. In the event of a user's failure to comply voluntarily with such emergency order, or where the giving of notice is impracticable, the Town Engineer may take all appropriate action to abate the violating condition, including disconnecting the user's premises from the Town's sanitary sewer system. As promptly as possible thereafter, not to exceed fifteen (15) days, the Town Engineer shall provide the user with the written notice required by subsection 1 of this section.

SECTION 1718 SOLAR ENERGY SYSTEMS

Reference LL #1-2017, SECTION 12, Penalties for violations.

- A. In the event of a violation of this chapter or any commercial ground-mounted solar energy systems issued pursuant to this chapter, the Board may impose and collect, and the holder of the site plan approval for solar collection facilities shall pay to the Town, fines or penalties as set forth below.
- B. A violation of this chapter is hereby declared to be an offense, punishable by a fine not exceeding $350 or imprisonment for a period not to exceed six months, or both, for conviction of a first offense; for conviction of a second offense, both of which were committed within a period of five years, punishable by a fine not less than $350 nor more than $700 or imprisonment for a period not to exceed six months, or both; and, upon conviction for a third or subsequent offense, all of which were committed within a period of five years, punishable by a fine not less than $700 nor more than $1,000 or imprisonment for a period not to exceed six months, or both. However, for the purpose of conferring jurisdiction upon courts and judicial officers generally, violations of this article or of such ordinance or regulation shall be deemed misdemeanors and, for such purpose only, all provisions of law relating to misdemeanors shall apply to such violations. Each week's continued violation shall constitute a separate additional violation.

TOWN OF KIRKWOOD

ARTICLE XVII
APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS

- C. Notwithstanding anything in this chapter, the owner/operator for commercial ground-mounted solar energy production facilities may not use the payment of fines, liquidated damages or other penalties to evade or avoid compliance with this chapter or any section of this chapter. An attempt to do so shall subject the owner/operator of commercial ground-mounted solar energy production facilities to termination and revocation of certificate of compliance. The Town may also seek injunctive relief to prevent the continued violation of this chapter, without limiting other remedies available to the Town.
